Reaching the Mass of Negroes

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, AUGUST 18, 1928

HON. MARCUS GARVEY, IN BRUSSELS, SENDS GREETINGS AND GOOD TIDINGS HIS FOLLOWERS EVERYWHERE

Fellowmen of the Negro Race, Greeting:

It is with great joy I write you from the Capital of Belgium to convey to you my very best wishes and to further encourage you in the great fight we are making toward the object of Africa redeemed.

Great Success in Europe

My visit to Europe has added immensely to the prestige of the Universal Negro Improvement Association and has helped to cement the scattered units of our race as nothing else has done before. I am glad to be able to report that we have made substantial progress in Europe, and it is only a question of time when the race as a whole will benefit by the results. You in your scattered outposts can do no better than redouble your energies in struggling toward the great goal before us. Indeed, I am happy, because I can see before me the growing success of our mighty movement, which will bring about not only the redemption of Africa. but the emancipation of the black man everywhere.

The World and the Blackman

It is true that the world is disposed to treat the black man unkindly, because of his ancient inertia, but the advent of the Universal Negro Improvement Association has brought about a wonderful change and if we, as black men, would hold up your heads with that laudable ambition characteristic of our fathers of old and press forward, we shall surely restore ourselves to the dignity of men and to our real status among the more progressive races and nations of the world. I am appealing to you, black men and women the world over, for a husbanding of that racial pride that is the prop and support of all peoples in their effort to reach the position of world respect and recognition. The time has really come for the black man to be proud of himself and his race. There is nothing to be ashamed of because of our color. It is true that others have tried to impute disrespect to us because we are black, but that has been made possible because we, ourselves, countenance their disrespect toward us. We should feel that we are as noble a race as any other group of people in the world.

The Blackman's Future

The black man has a wonderful future, but it is to our own making. We are going to make it through the determined effort of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, hence my hope that every black person in the United States, Central and South America, Asia, Africa, the West Indies and the world over will now rally as never before to the program of our organization so that ultimately we can accomplish the good that we desire,

Great Year Before Us

We are looking forward to a banner year between now and our convention of 1929. Every unit of the race must be linked together to make the convention what it ought to be.

My visit to Europe has brought about a cementing of fellowship between the French and Belgian sections of our race so that at our next convention we may look forward to the bringing together of every unit of the race in Africa and of the Western World.

Sub-European Headquarters in France

We have just established another sub-European headquarters in France so that our cause in Europe will be well represented. I hope that no one will lose courage or hope, because the future promises everything that is good and success for the Universal Negro Improvement Association and those who are supporting its principles.

The Negro Is Serious

In the past we have struggled in the midst of powerful enemies to assert ourselves. They were unable to eliminate us from that forceful stand which is necessary to be assumed on the part of every individual group that seeks liberty. The white man is beginning to realize that the Negro everywhere, through the Universal Negro Improvement Association, is serious. No longer shall we bow submissively and humbly under the yoke of alien races, but as men we shall stand together and fight until our goal is reached. Let no coward's voice nor tyrant's bluff subdue your spirit of manliness. The world is before you as your province: you have a right in it. Never see defeat, but as men let us gird on our armor of racial righteousness and fight for liberty. We are bound to win. Black men and women are bound to go forward; nothing can stop them but death and themselves. Let me encourage you to still fight on and rally to the red, black and green of the Universal Negro Improvement Association.

With very best wishes, I have the bonor to be

Your obedient servant.

Toronto's Splendid Proparation for Epochal Meeting 1929 Gladdens Membership-Everyone Determined to Do His Utmost to Hold Up the Hands of the Hon, Marcus Garvey, Who Is Doing a Great Work in Europe

LIBERTY HALL, NEW YORK, Sunday Night, August 12.-There was the accustomed large gathering tonight on the occasion of the weekly mass meeting of the New York Local. Hon, J. Enthusiasm was at high pitch, the members being greatly encour aged by the reports received at headquarters of the success which is attending the efforts of the Hon. Although a year away, the nembership in New York, as in other quarters of the globe, is look ing forward with keen anticipation to the events of 1929, which will begin to unroll with the assembling of the International Convention in Toronto, Canada, and the announcement by Mine, de Mena of the splendid preparatory work being done by the Toronto Division, as evidenced in the acquiring of a $25,000 meeting hall, was the cause for general rejoicing.

Today the Honorable Marcus Garvey is traveling in Europe preading the doctrine of "Africa for the Africans, at bome and should not his addity. His shoulds are abroad." He is trying to win for the Negro the chance that has been done only to do it between the striving to do that while a striving to the Jews in Palestine. We heard a song once entitled:

"After You Get What You Want, You Don't Want It," This is evidently true progress of the Negro and the business. Today no visiting chronicler to Africa is recounting the truth if he omits to report the continent-wide popularity which Marcus Garvey enjoys in his ancestral land, the veneration in which the natives hold him and his works, the homage they would delight to pay him were he to appear personally in their midst.

Some time ago Caroline Singer and her husband, C. Leroy Bald- We will all agree that the very best ridge, of the United States, set out to tour Africa "in search of material for a book." They were amazed, we are told, at the distrust after this, the blessings showered that the execution of Ruth Snyder, the Queens Village murderess, the foam and bubbles of life, the chaff White men in America and Europe have forced the backs of black men to "caused a commotion in the African interior," she touches last and blg children overfond of earthly toys, the wall—a desperate position that can only be changed by desperate methods. significantly on something which, we know, was uppermost in her. How rarely do we pause to be still A man whose life hangs in the balance thinks only of self-preservation, nothing mind. Let her speak for herself, as reported:

"One thing which Americans do not realize," Mrs. Baldridge writes, "is that Garvey is taken very, very seriously. His paper is intercepted in the postoffices. He is actually feared. One comes across British editorials against him. British officials, high and low, speak of him with bated breath. . . . And the most worried of all are the Liberians, whose country, founded as a refuge for American Negroes and West Indians, now is contemplating-so a Liberian official told mc-the enactment of emigration laws so stringent that foreign-natives will find Liberia-in this era of prosperity-no place in which to get a foothold. In fact, the term "Garveyites" is stretched, I suspect, to cover any American Negroes who may possibly like to have a hand in developing Liberia and may very well partake of Liberia's possible era of prosperity."

All this may be news to some who profess to see in Garvey noth ting but an insensate dreamer, but we could, if we wished, supplement Mrs. Baldridge's "revelations." The gospel of Garvey has are designed to keep Negroes, that the Negro has reached the limit of his national.
